

ESSENTIAL

Document Checklist by Applicant Type

Employed - Self-Employed - Student - Sponsored - Parent Boost

Every applicant needs

- Valid passport meeting the validity requirement
- Completed online application through your INZ account
- A specific, credible itinerary or reason for your visit
- Financial evidence covering your stay (see the Financial Requirements Overview)
- Evidence of onward or return travel

If you're employed

- A letter from your employer confirming your role and approved leave dates
- Recent pay slips and bank statements

If you're self-employed or run a business

- Business registration documents and recent bank statements

If you're a student

- A current enrolment/study confirmation letter
- If a parent/guardian is funding the trip: their financial evidence and a letter confirming support

If you're relying on a sponsor in New Zealand

INZ 1025 SPONSORSHIP FORM, NOT A GENERIC LETTER

If your own financial evidence or ties are weaker, a New Zealand-based sponsor can complete INZ's own Sponsorship Form for Temporary Entry (INZ 1025), formally committing to your accommodation and/or maintenance costs. This is a specific INZ form, not an informal invitation letter - see the Sponsor & Host Letter Templates (Complete tier) for what to prepare alongside it.

If applying under the Parent Boost Visitor Visa

- Evidence of your relationship to your New Zealand citizen or resident child

- That category's own specific financial and/or sponsorship requirements - confirm the current criteria directly with INZ

If you have health or character issues to disclose

- A chest X-ray or medical certificate, if required for your nationality or stay length
- A police certificate, if your history requires one