Application Submission Checklist

New Zealand - Visitor Visa, from account setup to decision

Before you submit

- Confirm your INZ online account is set up and your application form is complete
- Gather your full document set, including any sponsorship form
- Pay the application fee, which includes the IVL for this route

What to have ready

Item	Notes
Passport	Valid, meeting the validity requirement
Application	Submitted through your INZ online account
Financial evidence	Against INZ's specific per-month guideline
INZ 1025 Sponsorship Form	If relying on a New Zealand-based sponsor
Health/character documents	If required for your nationality or stay length
GENERALLY NO IN-PERSON INTERVIEW Most Visitor Visa applications are decided on the written file submitted online. INZ may contact you or request further documents, but a formal in-person interview is uncommon for standard applications.

While your application is being processed

- Respond promptly to any request for further information - delays here directly delay your decision
- Track your application status through your INZ online account

After a decision

- If approved, your eVisa is linked electronically to your passport - check its validity and conditions before you travel
- If refused, see the Refusal Decision Guide (Premium tier)
